10TH ANNUAL HANCOCK COUNTY FAIR DEEMED 'BEST EVER'

Photo submitted

Hundreds of people packed into the Hancock County Arena at Kiln last Wednesday through Saturday for the 10th annual Hancock County Fair.

BY GEOFF BELCHER
GENERAL MANAGER

The 10th annual Hancock County Fair ended on Saturday, but local officials are still singing its praises.

"It was wonderful, I'd say the best ever," Hancock County Tourism Executive Director Myrna Green said. "It was the first time in about three years that we had such wonderful weather.

"They did a pilot program on Wednesday that brought in some second-graders, several hundred .. and they did all kinds of events with them and had some stuff especially planned for them, so they got to come spend some time at the fair. Then Wednesday night was Praise & Worship Night, which is always a big success."

The city of Diamondhead is on its way to becoming the first Age and Dementia Friendly Community certified in Mississippi.

Diamondhead Mayor Nancy Depreo said the city is working with the Southern Mississippi Planning and Development District's as part of its Dementia Friendly Mississippi initiative.

The Mississippi State Department of Health oversees the program, she added.

The city was officially accepted by Dementia Friendly America on Aug. 29, Depreo said.

The DFA defines a dementia friendly community as one that is "informed, safe, and respectful of individuals living with dementia, their families, and caregivers and provides supportive options that foster quality of life."

The city now has a Dementia Friendly Diamondhead action team, which is following a step-by-step process set forth by DFA, Depreo said. Diamondhead

Waveland talks recycling; Safe Haven Baby Box contract

The Waveland Board of Mayor and Aldermen on Wednesday discussed city recycling services.

Up until this fiscal year, Hancock County has through its millage paid for all of the disposal of solid waste, County Administrator Jimmie Ladner said during the county's budget hearing on Sept. 7.

For FY 23-24, the county decided to eliminate the recycle dumpsters from solid waste disposal, which put the county in a position to not have to raise the millage to .55 mills, which gave the cities the option on whether they wanted to maintain that service or not.

Waveland Mayor Jay Trapani said the cost to the city to have the recy-

We are excited to announce Coach Joe Shaw as this year’s Grand Marshal. Coach Shaw has been an eminent figure in the Bay High Tiger football program since 1990, having served at different times as Assistant Coach, Offensive Coordinator, Middle School Coach, and Head Coach. Prior to coming to Bay High, he served as an assistant coach at Hancock North Central beginning in 1976 and was an instrumental part of a legendary period in Hawk football. Coach graduated from “The Pass” in 1967 before heading to Perk, and on to USM. He retired from the Bay-Waveland School District in 2011 after 35 years in education but has rarely missed any games. He often attends practices and meetings. The Tiger staff continues to lean heavily on Coach Shaw’s advice and counsel. Therefore, he has been given the title Coach Emeritus. His mantra, “Do Right!” is still echoed to Tiger players every day!

Flag Retirement Program

Edmond Fahey Funeral Home works with local residents and the veterans services organizations to properly retire any U.S. flag that has reached the end of its service. Our program is designed to honor our national heroes, our military veterans, and to give dignity to our American Flag when it is no longer worthy of display. We strive to see that each veteran being cremated has a flag. There is no charge for this service to our veterans.

According to the United States code, Title 4, Chapter 1, Subsection 8: "The flag, when it is in such condition that it is no longer a fitting emblem for display, should be destroyed in a dignified way, preferably by burning."

If you would like to honor a deceased veteran by donating an aged or worn flag to be properly disposed of, you may do so by delivering the flags to our funeral home located on the corner of Necaize Avenue and Main Street.

Remembering

It’s hard to believe that it will be October next week.

As they often do, this year has seem to flown by. Although, the past three months for our family have seemed to move with the speed of a snail.

While hopefully the month of October will also bring about some cooler weather, along with the spookiness of the season, it is also Pregnancy and Infant Loss Awareness Month.

I’ve spoken about this before, but I often don’t think it gets enough attention. More so, I hope that, one day, it will stop nosey people from asking every woman they see, “when are you going to start a family?”

Because you don’t know their story. There could be tremendous loss, there could be infertility, or they just simply want to remain childless like myself. Even better, it’s no one else’s business, so quit asking if a woman or a man is going to fulfill some weird destiny people have been trained to think they need to.

I’m the proud aunt of Evan and Gracie, born prematurely in 2012 and 2013. They were born quite close to their due dates, but their little bodies were not developed enough to survive.

According to october15th.com, in 1988, President Ronald Reagan declared October as National Pregnancy and Infant Loss Awareness Month.

“When a child loses his parent, they are called an orphan. When a spouse loses his or her partner, they are called a widow or widower. When parents lose their child, there isn’t a word to describe them. This month recognizes the loss of so many parents’ experience across the United States and around the world. It is also meant to inform and provide resources for parents who have lost children due to miscarriage, ectopic pregnancy, molar pregnancy, stillbirths, birth defects, SIDS, and other causes,” — President Ronald Reagan.

Robyn Bear, the founder of www.october15th.com, “envisioned a day when all grieving parents could come together and be surrounded by love and support from their friends and families, a day where the community could better understand their pain and learn how to reach out to those grieving. This would be a day to reflect on the loss yet embrace the love. While our babies’ lives were so brief, they were also very meaningful.”

As you can probably gather from previous columns about the nephew, my greatest joy is being

Hancock History: Galvez

During the Eighteenth Century European countries established colonies and/or settlements on the Gulf Coast and the Mississippi River Valley. The territory of present-day Hancock County was considered at that time to be part of the West Florida Colony. This colony changed hands several times in that era because transfer of land ownership was determined by European wars and the resultant treaties signed by France, England, and Spain. The Mississippi Gulf Coast belonged to England from 1763 to 1783, and Spain owned this colony of West Florida from 1783 to 1803. Meanwhile, the thirteen English colonies on the Atlantic seacoast fought a Revolutionary War from 1776 to 1783, becoming the United States of America with the Second Treaty of Paris in 1783. A key player in this drama was a Spanish general, Bernado de Galvez, who became Governor of Spanish Louisiana in 1777. Yet, Galvez is an omitted hero in American history books.

Bernardo de Galvez (1746-1786) was born in Spain, the son of a prominent nobleman who was the Viceroy of New Spain (Mexico). Bernardo Galvez had a long and distinguished career in the Spanish Army before he was appointed Governor of Spanish Louisiana. Shortly after he arrived in New Orleans in 1777, he married a local Creole woman, Marie Felicite, which earned him respect among his new formally French subjects in that city. As a matter of fact, East and West Feliciana Parishes are named after Galvez’s wife. St. Bernard Parish is named for Galvez’s patron saint, because his first name was Bernard.

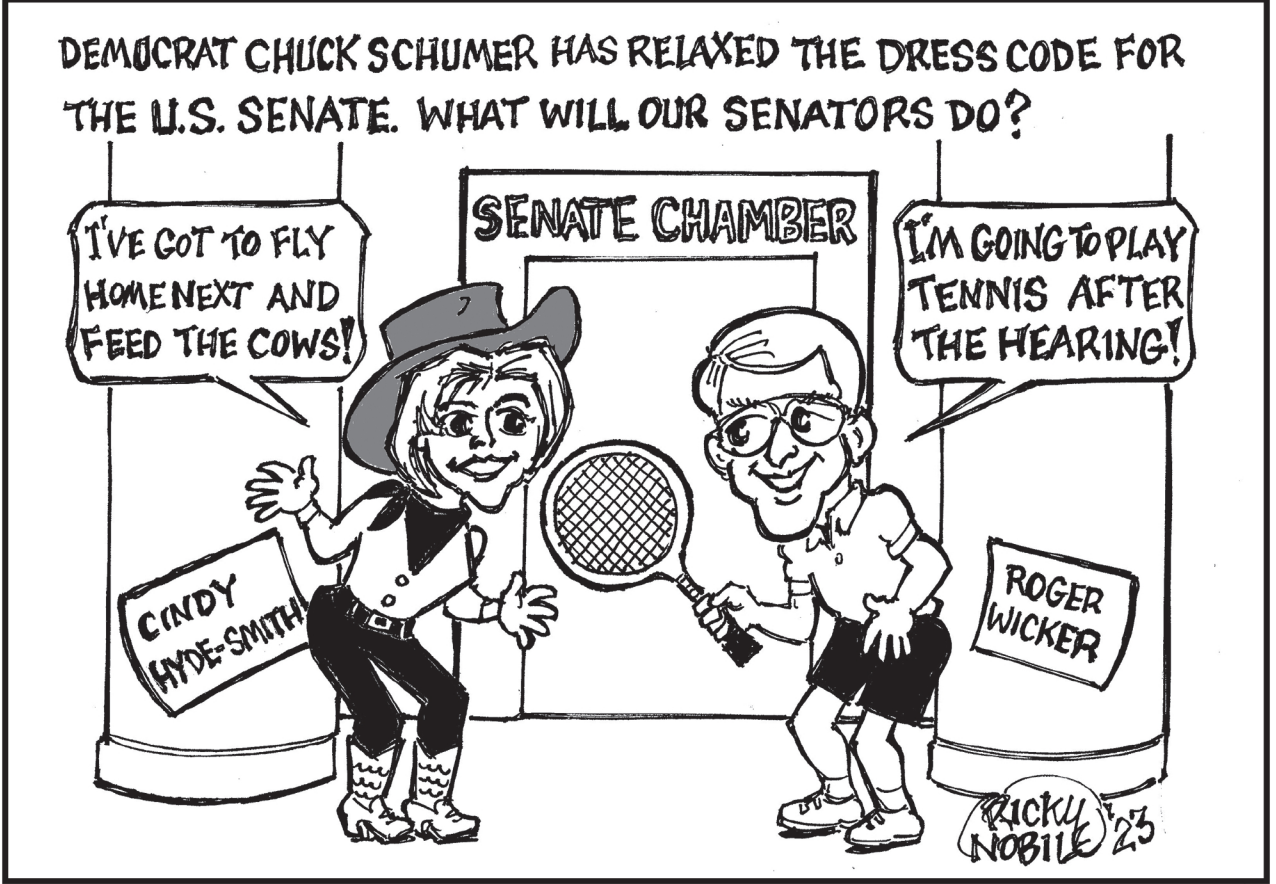

In 1777 the American Revolutionary War was in full progress. Accordingly, Galvez recognized that England was vulnerable and its hold on its Gulf Coast colonies was tenuous. Galvez made a strategic decision to help the Americans beat the English. First, he removed the English navy out of the Mississippi River Valley and created a conduit whereby Spain could sell much needed supplies to the rebellious thirteen colonies. These items included gunpowder, muskets, uniforms, and medicines. This vital supply line offered the thirteen colonies a means to bypass the naval blockade the British Navy had imposed on all of the ports on the Atlantic seacoast. Eventually, Spain formally entered the war against England.

Subsequently, Galvez prepared Spanish military forces in 1777 to initiate a campaign to seize the entire West Florida Colony from England. After he occupied the English forts on the Mississippi River, Fort Bute, Baton Rouge, and Natchez, he commanded his naval and army forces in a battle that took the port of Mobile. In 1781, Galvez marshaled a successful attack on the key British Naval base in Pensacola, which was the capital of the West Florida Colony. Galvez was able in the first four years of his tenure as Governor of Louisiana to expel the English entirely from the Gulf Coast. In 1783, he took Nassau in the Bahamas Islands.

In recognition of his splendid military victories, Galvez was appointed Viceroy of New Spain in 1783. Sadly, he died of typhus in Mexico in 1783 at age forty. Galvez has been somewhat forgotten among US historians of the Revolutionary War. Nevertheless, Galvez became one of only eight people in 2014 to have been named an honorary citizen of the USA. He was a hero to both Spain and the newly independent USA. A portrait of Galvez hangs in the US Capital Building. There is a street bearing his name in New Orleans. Because of his exploits, it was inevitable that the Mississippi Gulf Coast would soon become part of the new independent country, the USA. After the Louisiana Purchase, Spain was little more than an absentee landlord to its Gulf Coast colonies, and in 1811 President James Madison realized he needed to annex the West Florida Colony in spite of the objections from Spain.

NAACP Hancock County Branch
introduces its new administration

Guest Column
By Andrea Dedeaux

In 1972 and 1973 three Bay Saint Louis residents saw the need for a Branch of the NAACP national organization in Hancock County. The Civil Rights Act had been passed in 1964 which outlawed segregation in businesses such as theaters, restaurants, and hotels. Unfortunately, the law was not being followed in many businesses on the Gulf Coast. These three residents were Clementine Williams, Thomas Farve, and Albert Fairconnetue. These three NAACP charter members worked to sign up the 50 members required to form a branch. Albert Fairconnetue was elected as the first President of the new NAACP Hancock County Branch. He was one of the longest serving Presidents. Clementine Williams was elected as Branch Secretary. In later years, Thomas Farve served on the Bay Saint Louis City Council. Clementine Williams, the oldest of 6 daughters of Douglas Williams the first black police chief of Bay Saint Louis, became Principal of Delisle Elementary until her retirement as an educator.

Continuing the legacy of the first NAACP Hancock County Branch President Albert Fairconnetue are two of his daughters-in-law. His son Russell is the husband of Golden (Goldie) Fairconnetue the newly elected President and another son, Nathaniel, is married to former long-time branch Secretary who has now been elected as Second Treasurer.

Branch President Golden Fairconnetue said, “I’m standing on the strong shoulders of my mother Alvina Nichols and father-in-law Albert Fairconnetue and all the other NAACP ancestors who taught me how to volunteer and work for justice. Now give me my National Convention theme chant – WHEN WE FIGHT WE WIN!”

Second Secretary Paula Fairconnetue is happy to carry on family tradition. “I am so thankful to my father-in-law, Albert Fairconnetue, Clementine Williams, Thomas Farve, and many other brave African Americans who fought to put an end to racial segregation and discrimination in this country. The NAACP is as relevant today as it was when it was founded in 1909. The organi-

after allegedly dropping meth while showing up to court on drug charges

SEA COAST ECHO

A 24-year-old Kiln man was arrested on a felony drug charge last week after reportedly dropping some drugs while showing up for a Hancock Justice Court hearing on a previous drug charge.

Hancock County sheriff’s deputies last Tuesday arrested Brennan Wright, charging him with felony possession of a controlled substance.

“You see,” sheriff’s narcotics agents wrote on social media, “Mr. Wright was appearing in Justice Court for a preliminary hearing on a separate felony drug charge when he dropped something from his pocket. That something happened to be methamphetamine and our top-notch security staff happened to catch it all on video.”

Brennan was previously arrested for felony possession of a controlled substance on Aug. 28, and released on Aug. 29 on a $20,000 bond, according to jail records.

After last Tuesday’s arrest, he was released on Saturday after posting a separate $20,000 bond.

A new hearing has been scheduled in Hancock County Justice Court on Oct. 17.

an aunt. And I was just as excited when I learned I would become one for the first time.

Technically, I became an aunt when my sister adopted her most precious dog, the late great Coco.

Through the miracles of scientific and medical breakthroughs, I have a nine-year-old nephew, who just brings me so much indescribable joy.

My heart just skips a beat when I hear his little voice on the phone. I do miss those baby years, though. We used to chase each other around the house and he would just squeal and giggle.

People often refer to a baby born after a loss as a “rainbow baby.” That’s my nephew. He is a sweet, kind-hearted little boy, but also, to my absolute delight, full of sarcasm, realism, and just plain ole fun.

The Star Legacy Foundation’s October campaign is #neverbestill, a movement that “seeks to break the silence surrounding stillbirth and other pregnancy/infant losses by not only educating the public about ways to support bereaved families but also empowering expectant mothers to have a health pregnancy.”

I also don’t want to forgot those who have lost almost grown children, either. There is no word to really describe them either.

A childhood friend of mine recently lost her young child and that is just devastating as well.

You spend years raising and getting to know this little person who you have brought into the world and in the blink of an eye, it’s all gone. But, the sweet memories remain and I hope my friend can be comforted by those as she navigates a future without her child.

I often think about what Evan and Gracie would have been like and how fun it would have been to get to know them. They are never forgotten and have a special place in Aunt Cass Cass’ heart.

I’m thankful every day for my little nephew and the joy he brings to our family.

In closing, I hope that people will learn to support those who have experienced the loss of a child and it is my fervent hope that people will stay out of other people’s wombs.

“Sometimes the smallest things take up the most room in your heart,” — A.A. Milne.

zation continues on the “mission to achieve equity, political rights, and social inclusion by advancing policies and practices that expand human and civil rights, eliminate discrimination, and accelerate the well-being, education, and economic security of Black people and all persons of color. I’m honored to be a participant in the continuation of the legacy of the NAACP.”

Reflecting on those days when the Hancock County Branch was established, Clementine Williams said. “Albert was reluctant to accept the nomination as our first President due to his hectic work schedule. After encouragement from his cohorts, especially Thomas and I, he accepted and became one of our longest serving and dedicated Presidents to date.

He strove to make our community a place for all citizens to be accepted on their merits and not the color of their skin.”

Other newly elected Branch officers are: Sandra Price – Vice President, Karen Singleton – Secretary, Darlene Robinson – Treasurer, Andrea Dedeaux – Second Secretary. Executive Board members are: Kim Coles, Cynthia Simpkins, Carol Strohmets, Cheryl Thompson, and Clarence Harris.

The preamble to the Constitution includes the words “in Order to form a more perfect Union”. With the onslaught of voter suppression and nullification laws being passed in many states our freedoms and our democracy is in peril. The banning of books and the denial of our country’s true history is also dangerous. It is vital that the fight for equality, justice, and our freedoms continues.

Our Union will never be absolutely perfect but the preservation of what we have attained in the effort reach a “more perfect Union” cannot be lost. If we lose our democracy the disastrous result will be the alternative which is autocracy.

Charlotte Justa “Dede” Gray

Charlotte Justa “Dede” Gray, 88, of Bay St. Louis, Mississippi, passed away on Saturday, September 9, 2023.

Charlotte was born on December 5, 1934, to Angel Lema and Charlotte Lema in Galveston, Texas. In 1953 she graduated from Ursuline Academy as a straight A student. After graduation she worked at the local telephone company. She met Emmett Gray, and they were married on Aug 30, 1957, a marriage which lasted 66 years. She was a beloved mother to four children, Scott Gray of Bay St. Louis, Mississippi; Pamela Sue Gray-Wilcox of Massanutten, Virginia; Benjamin Gray of Odessa, Florida; and Laura Elise Gray, who passed away Dec 3, 2003.

She is survived by her husband, Emmett Gray; children Scott Gray, Pamela Sue Gray-Wilcox, and Benjamin Gray; four grandchildren; her brother Angel R. Lema and wife Dorothy Charlene and her sister Sandra Schiff and husband John Schiff and numerous nieces and nephews. Dede, as we affectionately knew her, had numerous friends with whom she kept in contact with. She loved everyone and was loved by many. During her years of raising and loving her four children, she worked for a period of time for a law firm in Houston, TX and still found time to cook delicious meals, always laugh, dance, she loved to whistle and was a loving wife. She loved gardening over the years and over the last few years she loved watching her birds. She was known for her happy, joyous nature and was never forgotten by everyone she met. She took care of her mother for many years after her father passed away and they were best friends and visited and traveled together on many fun excursions. She loved the Lord and was a member of Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church in Bay St. Louis, Mississippi. She suffered the last few years of her life but still maintained a sense of caring and love for everyone else. She is missed and we are grieving but feel blessed knowing she is in peace in heaven. Please note that while no services will be held as per Charlotte’s wishes, our family would feel honored if you kept us and Charlotte in your thoughts during this difficult time.

Gwen Impson

Gwen Impson passed away on Saturday, September 16, 2023 at the age of 77.

Born on February 26, 1946 in New Orleans, she was the firstborn of Thelma Leonard Gelis and Gaston J. B. Gelis. Gwen lived a full and beautiful life.

Gwen is survived by her devoted husband John W. Impson, loving children, Brett J. L. Landry (Sanjana), Amy E. DiMaggio (Andrew) and step-daughter, Denise Smith (JT). Gwen was known as Granny to her three grandchildren: Raj Landry, Meera Landry, and Anna DiMaggio. She leaves behind a brother, Douglas Gelis (Nancy), a sister, Tahmi Keir (Ralph 1949-2018), and was preceded in death by her parents.

In her youth, Gwen lived in Thibodaux, Monroe, Destrehan, and New Orleans. She graduated from Dominican High School in 1964. After marriage and motherhood, Gwen found her passion for the arts as a painter. This was a passion that she integrated into all aspects of her life, including her children’s schools and multiple projects for the City of New Orleans. Gwen lived in the French Quarter and participated in local art exhibitions. Gwen’s life changed forever when she met John W. Impson, and they were married in 1992. With John’s support and encouragement, Gwen pursued her art career full-time, expanding into printmaking, Gyotaku, and petroglyphs. While living in Virginia, she was an active member at the Torpedo Factory Art Center, and her artwork was exhibited in the U.S.

Capitol Rotunda and the Watergate Hotel. She began teaching printmaking with a variety of techniques in the D.C. area. Her works on Abraham Lincoln garnished national recognition in 1998.

After John retired, they moved to the Mississippi Gulf Coast and welcomed her mother Thelma into their home. Gwen opened her own studio, The Turquoise Turtle where local artists could attend classes or utilize her studio’s custom made printmaking press. It also provided John a space to mat and frame artwork for the community. When John started sprinting competitively in the Senior Olympics, they enjoyed their travels to local, regional, and national events. Gwen was his constant cheerleader and supporter through his many competitions and encouraged family and friends to cheer him on. As Granny, she was involved in her grandchildren’s lives by providing them with a special place for talent shows, endless arts projects, trips to the beach, and bunny cakes. She was proud to witness each of them graduate from college and pursue their own passions. Gwen was passionate about cultivating the arts on the Gulf Coast and in 2003 started “The Arts, Hancock County.” She served as its first president and remained an active and contributing member for the remainder of her life. Post Hurricane Katrina, Gwen worked with fellow artists and collaborated with the Chamber of Commerce and other benefactors to match contributions to restore the arts community. In 2006, the Washington Post interviewed her about The Arts, Hancock County artists being hosted at the Clinton Presidential Library. Gwen said “To be able to create again after going through something as horrendous as this makes you feel alive again.” For all of us it is about finding joy and creating beauty after losing her all too soon. We are more alive because of the life she shared with all of us and lived so fully. Gwen was a loving, talented, and giving person as a wife, mom, granny, sister, aunt, and friend. She loved all those around her; she was generous, providing meals, roses, and encouraging words. Gwen made life better. She will be missed by all who knew her. Her love for others, the beauty in everything, and art is her legacy. A special thanks to the doctors and staff at UMC in New Orleans and Janet Densmore and Jerome Anderson.

A Celebration of Life honoring Gwen will be held on Saturday, September 30, 2023 from 2:00 until 5:00 p.m. at The Arts, Hancock County: 405 Blaize Avenue, MS 39502. (228-342-4521). In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made in her name to The Arts, Hancock County at the above address.

Edmond Fahey Funeral Home is honored to serve the family of Gwen Impson.

Hancock Health Foundation’s Second Annual “Happy Days Are Here Again” Event: A Nostalgic Night for a Noble Cause

SEA COAST ECHO

The Hancock Health Foundation is delighted to announce the return of its second annual “Happy Days Are Here Again” event, set to take place on Friday, September 29th. Following the remarkable success of its inaugural edition, which raised nearly $7,000 in support of the Hancock Health Foundation, this year’s event is geared up with even bigger aspirations, aiming to raise $10,000.

“We couldn’t be more thrilled to bring back this event,” exclaimed Sherry Ponder, the President of the Hancock Health Foundation. “We eagerly anticipate seeing everyone dressed in their 50’s finest as we celebrate the beginning of the Cruisin’ season while also contributing to a noble cause.”

The event is scheduled for Friday, September 29th, starting at 7 p.m., and will be held at the Bay St. Louis Community Hall. The evening’s highlight will be a live performance by the renowned Elvis Tribute Artist Nick Perkins. Adding to the nostalgic atmosphere, Uncle Joe’s Pizza & Wings will be catering the event, offering a delightful spread of 50’s diner favorites. Tickets for the event are priced at $50 each, and guests are encouraged to bring their credit cards or checkbooks to participate in the silent auction. For beverages, it’s BYOB (Bring Your Own Bottle). There will be soft drinks and water available.

Tickets and sponsorship opportunities can be secured through the Hancock Health Foundation’s website at <http://hhfms.org> or by contacting any Hancock Health Foundation Board member. Should you have any inquiries or require further assistance, please feel free to reach out to Anne Pitre at anne@hancockchamber.org or by calling 228-467-9048.

The proceeds from this lively event will be directed towards supporting the Hancock Health Foundation’s community health programs, which have been making a profound impact on the community since its inception. Since 2019, the Hancock Health Foundation has generously donated over $250,000 to various initiatives aimed at improving the well-being of the community.

Among its notable contributions, the foundation has funded the purchase of life-saving Automated External Defibrillators (AEDs) for two area schools, ensuring the safety of students and staff. Additionally, they have introduced the nationally-recognized program, Youth Mental Health First Aid, equipping adults with the skills to identify and address youth mental health issues.

To enhance healthcare services in the region, the Hancock Health Foundation funded the relocation and installation of a second mammogram system for the local hospital, promoting early detection of breast cancer. Their annual Pride With a Purpose golf tournament has raised over $500,000, enabling more than 5,000 mammograms for women in Hancock County since 2003.

Recognizing the importance of nutrition as a community health issue, the foundation also replaced air conditioning for King’s Kitchen, a vital community resource. Furthermore, their partnership with the Rotary of Central Hancock resulted in a billboard on Highway 90, promoting the ABC’s of safe sleep to reduce Mississippi’s infant mortality rate, along with active promotion of the Count the Kicks web and mobile app. In addition to all these projects and campaigns, they also make donations to individuals who are facing big challenges with their health.

As the “Happy Days Are Here Again” event gears up for its second year, it promises an evening filled with nostalgia, entertainment, and community spirit, all while supporting the Hancock Health Foundation’s noble mission of improving community health and well-being. Mark your calendars for September 29th, and join the festivities in style, because every ticket purchased is a step towards a healthier, happier community.

Stallone movie being partly filmed in Waveland, Pearlinton

SEA COAST ECHO

Convergence Entertainment began filming in Hancock County last week for the upcoming Sylvester Stallone movie “Armored.”

The company posted a casting call for locals on the-southerncastingcall.com on Sept. 18, and filmed at the old Hwy. 90 bridge in Pearlinton last Wednesday and at Keesler Federal Credit Union in Waveland on Thursday.

“Armored” is about a father and son who work as security guards for an armored truck company who end up dealing with a robbery attempt.

The film is being directed by Justin Routt, and features Stallone as well as Jason Patrick and Josh Wiggins.

The California-based company recently filmed “Cash Out 2” featuring John Travolta in Biloxi.

The crew is reportedly scouting for houses in Waveland to use in the film, and is scheduled to continue working on the Coast until the second week of October.

• FAIR

This year’s fair — located at the Hancock County Arena in Kiln — also boasted some huge musical acts, mixing local favorites like Sons of Uh Beech and Keith Hoda with nationally-known performers such as T. Graham Brown and country legend Neal McCoy.

It also included a junior high rodeo, high school rodeo, livestock exhibits and more.

“Everything came together like it was supposed to,” Green said. “The grounds were in great condition. We had a lot of crafts vendors, a lot of sponsors. ... The food is always a big hit. We had a great variety of food this year.

“And of course the carnival rides are always a big hit. The response was good, I didn’t hear any complaints. Everybody just seemed to enjoy being out. Lots and lots of children, having fun with their families.”

The Hancock County Fair is put on by the Hancock County Community Committee a 501(c)(3) non profit organization.

“A big thank you to the Hancock County Community Committee,” Green said. “They meet year-round, weekly, planning this and getting all the kinks worked out and everything done. They don’t get nearly enough thanks.”

Not only is the event a tremendous example of an old-fashioned county fair, Green said, “it also showcases every aspect of our county -- the artists, the children who work so hard to raise these animals, county facilities, such as our fabulous arena, everything.”

• DEMENTIA

Senior Village Inc. also conducted a survey to identify potential methods of increasing dementia friendliness throughout the community.

On Wednesday, the team participated in one of its first steps, the Second Winds Dreams featuring the Virtual Dementia Tour.

According to Second Wind Dreams’ website, the tour features trained facilitators who guide “participants outfitted with patented devices that alter their senses while they try to complete common everyday tasks and exercises. The Tour enables caregivers to experience for themselves the physical and mental challenges those with dementia face, and use the experience to provide better person-centered care.”

Depreo, who said her mother had dementia, went through the virtual tour and described the experience as “extremely emotional” and painted a “realistic view of the challenges people with dementia go through during their daily lives.”

“It was an eye-opening experience,” she said. “Feeling, seeing, and hearing as someone with dementia does. It sounds a lot louder for people with dementia and multiple sounds are confusing. The motor skills were challenging because you’re not able to do things you normally do in a day.”

Depreo said that some members of the fire and police departments participated in the virtual tour and the plan is to train all first responders on how to interact and empathize with dementia patients.

Next, the mayor said, the team will move onto community organizations and also collaborate with the Hancock County Library System to provide educational information on dementia. In addition, the team also plans to approach local restaurants about establishing times set aside for families and caregivers of those with dementia, Depreo said.

There are also talks of the creation of “dementia cafes” where people can learn about the support available in Diamondhead, she said.

Depreo added there are also plans to provide support for caregivers.

“Sometimes, you just need a moment for yourself,” she said.

One of the ways to provide support to caregivers is by organizing groups where they can interact with people who are also going through the same thing, she said.

Depreo said joining the DFA Network is “big” for the city of Diamondhead.

“It’s building strong families of seniors that look out for each other,” she said. “We want people living with dementia to be able to go to restaurants, to feel welcomed and part of the community.”

• WAVELAND

cling services behind city hall would be $49,200 for FY 23-24.

Trapani said the city received the official news of the action on Monday and “we do not have $49,200 budgeted for FY 23-24.”

“In this memo, to recycle the cardboard and things that we can collect in the back, we are charged $1,000 per ton,” Trapani said. “Unfortunately, we don’t have the money in the budget. To put it in the trash collection/garbage can and bring it to the landfill, we’re only charged $37 per ton. It’s a big difference.”

The board took no official action and has no plans to pursue a contract for recycling services at this time.

In a separate matter, the board discussed the lease and service agreement between the city of Waveland and Safe Haven Baby Boxes, Inc.

At the Sept. 5 meeting, the board approved the installation of the county’s first Safe Haven Baby Box.

According to its website, “Safe Haven Baby Boxes was founded by Monica Kelsey in 2015 to give mothers/parents a safe and legal option to surrender their baby 100 percent anonymously. Safe Haven Baby Boxes mission is to prevent illegal abandonment of newborns by raising awareness, and offering a 24-hour hotline for mothers in crisis.”

Ward 1 Alderwoman Rhonda Aime-Gamble made a motion to table the motion until the Oct. 3 meeting because “they are raising the money to pay for all this, so when it comes time for us to sign the contract, it will already be paid for.”

At the Sept. 5 meeting, Monica Ladner, president of the Hancock County Republican Women’s Committee, said the box would have to be placed inside a 24-hour mounted system, which would be located at Waveland’s fire station on Hwy. 90. She said that the she had a licensed contractor and electrician to perform the labor. She said the cost to the city would be “$300 per year” and that the “first year’s cost has already been donated.”

Ward 3 Alderman Shane LaFontaine asked about an $11,000 cost.

Aime-Gamble said it comes to about $13,000 in total.

“All of that is going to be raised money,” she said. “That’s the initial cost of what it’s going to cost to buy it. Monica already has people who have volunteered their time to install it, so that’s all free. She’s already started getting donations towards the payment of the entire project.”

Board attorney Ronnie Artigues said the contract that was sent didn’t “reflect donation, it in fact put the responsibility on the city.”

Artigues said he contacted the company and told them that was not the arrangement.

“They had indicated to me that they do have a different contract that involves third-party payers that they would send, but they have not sent that,” he said. “When they sent the second contract to me it was basically the same as the first one. So, I wrote them again, saying you got to send me the agreement that reflects the presentation and what was approved, but I haven’t received that to date.”

Artigues said, according to the contract, there is a list of costs, which included a $300 fee, a $500 fee, one-time cost of about $11,000, and other costs that could potentially reach $20,000, but those were fixed.”

The contract, Artigues said, makes it a binding obligation of the city if no funds are collected.

“Until such time we know the funds are collected, there is no agreement for you guys to sign and approve,” Artigues said. “What you approved is to move with potentially, because she did mention the $300, but that the most it would cost the city could potentially be $300, that’s what y’all approved. The contract will have to match what you approved.”

Artigues said the five-year contract was another issue.

“What they drafted, their standard agreement is for five years,” he said. “We can’t contract, as you all know, for more than four years. That’s one of the issues I raised back.”

Artigues said it can be funded 100 percent through donations.

“The problem is making sure you have those donations and making sure the agreement reads that way so you don’t get stuck if the donations don’t come through,” he said.

Aime-Gamble said she spoke with Ladner, who indicated that people are already making donations for the Safe Haven Baby Box.

LaFontaine also asked about the costs associated with the provision that the provider maintain the baby box.

“Those are potential additional costs about the $11,000 and $500,” Artigues said.

LaFontaine also asked about the liability of the box.

“We will have insurance coverage,” Artigues said. “But there is some exemptions or immunity from liability for first-responders, which is why you see them trying to put them in fire stations or situations like this. We don’t have any exposure outside of what’s already covered by insurance.”

The board voted to table the matter until the Oct. 3 meeting.

In other action:

The board approved proclamations declaring Sept. 17-23 as Constitution Week and the month of October as Breast Cancer Awareness Month.

The next regular meeting is scheduled for Oct. 3 at 6:30 p.m.

A Good Life Amid Hard Times

By REV. C. GERALD RICHARDSON, D. MIN

C. Gerald Richardson, D. MIN.

It is no secret to anyone who has lived for very long, or who has reflected very deeply, that sometimes life can be hard. Almost from our first ability to discern reality or to make judgments about right and wrong, we are faced with multiple choices and challenges. The older and more mature we become, the more difficult the moral issues seem to be.

The first story in the bible includes the declaration from the almighty that humans must work and toil for their lives. In that ancient account, this is punishment for failure to obey the dictates of the creator. Out of this story grows most of the theological understandings which have molded the thinking of Judeo-Christian religious thought. There are many ways to interpret this well-known narrative, and the interpretations have given rise to most, if not all, of the religions which are known and widely practiced in the western world. Even the most secular of thinkers draw much of their ideology from some knowledge, or inaccurate knowledge, of this old story.

Whatever perspective an individual may bring to the ideological table, it is broadly assumed that life comes with difficulties. There are hard choices to be made. There are heavy burdens to carry. There are health issues to be endured. There are painful losses to face. Eventually, there is the final confrontation when life as we know it comes to an end.

From one perspective it may seem that such an existence would not be desirable. However, it is safe to say that most of us do not experience it this way. People regularly find joy and satisfaction in the living of ordinary lives. We do at times face hardship, but we almost always do so against the backdrop of hope, and the conviction that things can get better. There is even meaning to be drawn from the facing of the challenges of life. Yes, life can be hard, but to quote a line from a movie of some years ago, “It is supposed to be hard, if it were easy everybody would be doing it”. Of course, in reality, everybody is doing it. We all do it differently. We respond in our own way. At times we face hardship with courage. At other times, with a whimper. Some of us even try to deny reality for as long as we can. And sometimes we rage against it.

Whatever place we may find ourselves on the journey of life, it is important to make a point of incorporating hope into the equation. We can strive for a life of gratitude, even amid the times of pain or uncertainty. We can embrace the love that is around us, and we can offer love to others. We can acknowledge that mystery which Paul Tillich called “The ground of being”, which is the essence of who we are, and from whence we come. Many of us call that essence “God”. Whatever it may be to any individual, it can sustain us and guide us to hope amid a hard world.

MEET RAMPER!

Look at this happy boy! He is a fine looking, 12 month old, Labrador Retriever/Terrier mix. If you look closely, you'll see burnished amber highlights in his coat, which match his vibrant, beautiful eyes. Ramper is quite petite in stature at approximately 30 pounds, so he will likely remain a medium size dog, and not reach the size of a purebred Lab. This sweet pup is outgoing, friendly, loving, and very responsive to verbal cues and commands. He is at the perfect age to continue with more advanced training, as well as to learn a trick or two. Any family dynamic would be ideal for Ramper, and he would be a shining star. He is the best boy! If you are seeking a new furry family member, Ramper would be an awesome choice. He is playful with small and large dogs, loves kids, and gives the best kisses. Please come in with your family to meet Ramper. Our visiting hours are: Mon, Wed-Fri 10am-3:30pm and Tues 1:30pm-3:30pm, or you may call our front desk at 228-466-4516 to schedule an appointment. Please bring your dog(s) to the visit to ensure compatibility.

BAY HIGH TIGERS MAUL THE BLUE DEVILS 42-26

BY PAYTON NELSON
CONTRIBUTING WRITER

On Friday, the Bay High Tigers went on the road to face the Pearl River Central Blue Devils in Carriere.

The Tigers won the toss and elected to defer. The Blue Devils started off strong with a long rush and then a rushing touchdown from sophomore quarterback Qorday Russel.

During the point-after attempt, the kick was blocked by senior Tiger Christian Key.

After a quick three-and-out for the Tigers, they managed to knock the ball loose and regain possession thanks to a fumble recovery from junior Dane Murphy.

The Tigers followed up with a 38-yard connection between junior Xander Ladner and senior Benny Williams, followed by a 10-yard touchdown reception to senior Hayden Hearty near the end of the first quarter.

The Blue Devils answered back with a quick gain of yards as well as a touchdown from Russel, putting the Blue Devils up 12-7 after another blocked field goal.

After a three-and-out, then a punt, the Tigers put up some more points thanks to a 10-yard rush from junior running back Jaylen Antoine, giving the Tigers the lead 14-12. The Tigers would then force another fumble on kickoff, leading to the end of the half.

As the Tigers received the ball, they managed a good drive until it was ended by an interception by the Blue Devils senior Makade Penton at the 23 yard line.

Following that was a punt for both teams then another punt for the Blue Devils, which set the Tigers up for a touchdown reception by senior Tyler Rose for his first of the year.

The Blue Devils received the ball and managed to march up the field and score in the first 10 seconds of the fourth quarter by the legs of Russel, his third touchdown of the night, bringing the score Tigers 21, Blue Devils 18 after missing the two-point conversion.

The Tigers would punt the ball on their next drive, then the Blue Devils turned the ball over on downs, setting the Tigers up for a 45-yard rush from Williams to put the Tigers up 28-18.

The Blue Devils would try to air the ball out until it landed in the hands of Tiger freshman Jerramic Keys, who ran it back 85 yards for a pick-six.

That was followed by another pick-six as the ball landed in the hands of junior Trevion Allen, who brought it back 40 yards to put the Tigers up 42-18.

At the end of the game, the Blue Devils would manage to score a 15-yard passing touchdown after a long gain, followed by a two-point conversion, bringing the game to a close with the final score being 42-26 with the Tigers taking home the victory.

Afterwards, Coach Jeremy Turcotte had this to say about the game: "I want to take my hat off to Pearl River Central. They gave us everything we wanted, jumped around a lot, confused us a little bit with their defensive front. Number 10, Qorday Russel, is a great athlete, great football player, he's only a sophomore, we've seen him coming up and he's gonna give people fits. I want to give props to our guys. We came this week and we fixed a bunch of little things and they're still not satisfied. We think we can keep getting better and we've got another week to keep getting better to move into district play."

This week, the Tigers face the Presbyterian Christian High School for their Homecoming game.

Hancock Hawks trounce the Petal Panthers 46-7

BY JOSEPH KEYS
CONTRIBUTING WRITER

The 24th state ranked Hancock Hawks traveled to Petal on Friday and dominated the Petal Panthers by a final score of 46-7.

The Hawks are the only undefeated team in District 6A.

Hancock's efficient offense and dominating defense proved to be too much for the Panthers on Friday night. The Hawks offense is averaging 45.2 points per game and defense is only allowing 16.1 points per game.

Against the Panthers, the Hawks offense tallied more than 613 total yards in offense. 351 yards rushing and 262 yards passing.

The Hancock offense was dominated by the play of quarterback Dylan Moran, Zach Gullung and Neil Ack-er.

Moran completed 16 of 23 passes for 241 yards and four touch-downs on Friday; Gullung carried the ball 25 times for 241 yards and three touchdowns; while Ack-er caught nine passes for 123 yards and two touchdowns.

Hancock's Head Coach Neil Lollar summed up his team play: "Our team has traveled well (three of the first four games have been on the road.)

We have been playing well on both sides of the ball, and we played clean football, with only three penalties and no flags, which is pretty good for a high school football team. We still have some things to clean up, but overall we are playing some pretty good football."

The Hawks will be looking to win their fifth consecutive game and remain unbeaten when they travel to Vancleave to take on the Vancleave Bulldogs this Friday night.

PIRATES DOMINATE TIGERS 41-3 FOR HOMECOMING

BY HUNTER DAWKINS
THE GAZEBO GAZETTE

In five games, the Pass Christian Pirates football team has given up only 48 points. Friday night, Sept. 22, was no different for the Pass High defense, which only allowed three first half points in a dominating 41-3 homecoming victory over last non-region opponent Northeast Jones.

"I thought we played well Friday," said Pass Christian High School Head Football Coach Jeff Stockstill, in his first year coming off back-to-back MHSAA state championships at Scott Central High School. "The guys were solid in all three phases, but we need to have another good week of practice going into district play."

The Pirates (4-1) scored touchdowns in every quarter of the game, including three in the first quarter on two runs by Pass Christian Running Back Jacquez Alexander-Dedeaux and one 30-yard reception by Terry Patton, Jr. from Quarterback Ladd Scriber. Despite missing an extra point, the Pirates were ahead 20-0 after the first quarter.

Even though the Pirates allowed a short field goal from NE Jones, Pass Christian marched down the field to score their final touchdown of the half on a 2-yard run by All-Purpose Specialist Patton, Jr. Placekicker Cooper Schatzle converted the last extra point before the half to post a 27-3 lead in favor of the Pirates.

Things did not get easier for the Tigers in the second half, as the Pass Christian defensive unit did not allow any point and finished with 19 tackles for loss, 5 hurries, a sack and one fumble recovery.

The final two touchdowns were off an 18-yard touchdown pass from Scriber to Receiver Anthony James and an Alexander-Dedeaux 4-yard touchdown run to put an exclamation point on the homecoming victory.

Senior Signal-Caller Scriber was 8-12 for 149 yards passing, two touchdowns and an interception. Alexander-Dedeaux led Pass Christian offensively with three touchdowns rushing, 214 yards and 22 attempts from the ground.

Patton, Jr. led the Pirates receiving with 73 yards on 3 receptions and a touchdown but ran for another score. James caught 3 passes for 46 yards and a touchdown.

Karsten Mooney tied the team in tackles from his linebacker position along with a recovered fumble and three tackles for a loss. Pirates Senior Defensive Tackle Jayden Acker also had 7 tackles and 5 tackles for loss.

The Pass Christian Pirates will host their first division game against the Greene County Wildcats Friday, September 29, at the Francis McDonald Stadium. Last year, the Pirates suffered a tough 33-17 loss in Leakesville and are 1-9 against them historically. The game will begin at 7 p.m.

The 27th annual Cruisin' the Coast begins Sunday and moves into Hancock County next Wednesday, Oct. 4.

27th annual Cruisin' the Coast begins this weekend

BY GEOFF BELCHER
GENERAL MANAGER

The 27th annual Cruisin' the Coast is scheduled to begin this Sunday, Oct. 1, and more than 9,000 classic cars have registered. Thousands of visitors from all over the country will be cruising their classic cars from Biloxi to Waveland, with Hancock County events set to kick into high gear on Wednesday, Oct. 4.

"We're expecting a big turn-out in Hancock County," Hancock Tourism Director Myrna Green said. "We're excited about the benefits it will bring to the county and to Old Town Bay St. Louis."

Cruisin' the Coast has been named the Number One Car Show in the United States.

Green said that hundreds more are expected to register on-site, and roughly one-third of the Cruisin' visitors each year are not even registered -- they're just here to see the cars.

PARTY TIME

Car enthusiasts from 45 states plus Puerto Rico, Canada and Sweden drive to the Mississippi Gulf Coast once a year to showcase their rides and to cruise our beautiful 30-mile stretch of beach-side highway with designated stops in Bay St. Louis, Diamondhead, Biloxi, D'Iberville, Gulfport, Pass Christian and Ocean Springs.

HOT RODS & HOSPITALITY

The city will host its "Hot Rods & Hospitality" celebration from 10 a.m.-6 p.m. on Wednesday, with entertainment by the Dave Mayley Band, Assumed Risk and DJ Greg B.

Hancock offers 'Hospitality,' 'Blessings' & 'Mopar Day'

Cruisin' the Coast organizers say this year's event will be the biggest ever, and Hancock County communities are working overtime to give the Cruisers plenty to do, with special events scheduled in Waveland, Diamondhead and Bay St. Louis, in addition to the usual entertainment schedule.

Waveland is back in the Cruisin' hosting game — Mayor Jay Trapani said Cruisin' founder Woody Bailey personally asked him if the Hospitality City would like to return to the fold.

And the city of Waveland responded with the first annual Hot Rods & Hospitality Street Cruise-In, scheduled from 10 a.m.-6 p.m. on Wednesday, Oct. 4 on Coleman Avenue. The event will feature entertainment by the Dave Mayley Band, Assumed Risk and DJ Greg B.

"It's exciting — it's the first time that Waveland is hosting an event since 2006," Trapani said. "It's great to be able to bring Cruisin' back down to Coleman Avenue."

"Alderman Bobby Richardson and his wife Melissa have worked hard to make it a success."

The event was originally scheduled from 10 a.m.-2 p.m., Trapani said, but the city expanded the entertainment line-up so that Cruisers will have live music until at least 6 p.m. There will also be 10-12 food trucks, crafts booths and more.

Also on Wednesday, the city of Diamondhead is scheduled to host the 11th annual Blessing of the Classics. Registered vehicles are invited to the staging area at Diamondhead City Hall beginning at 1 p.m. Wednesday. At 4 p.m., they will drive their rides around a scenic route on Diamondhead Drive East and Lanai Drive where they will have their classic cars blessed by priests and pastors from different denominations. Each participating car owner will receive a Blessing of the Classics commemorative certificate.

At the main stage, D Jr. and the Shine

The city of Diamondhead will host its 11th annual Blessing of the Classics on Wednesday, Oct. 4.

Soul Band will perform from 1:30-4 p.m.; and the Beau King Band will perform from 4-7 p.m.

"We come here every year," Metairie resident Buddy Ryals said outside city hall during Diamondhead's 10th annual Blessing event. "We came down for the very first Cruisin' the Coast in 1996. We love it."

The fourth annual Mopar Day in Da Bay is scheduled from 8 a.m.-4 p.m. on Thursday, Oct. 5, at the historic Bay St. Louis Train Depot. Admission is "a smile and a hello," and there will be free jambalaya and pastalaya, give-aways and live music provided by Joni Compretta & Baytown Groove from 11:30 a.m.-2 p.m.

Last year's Mopar Day in Da Bay set new attendance records.

"It was a wonderful day," event organizer Lonnie Falgout said. "It was quite amazing. It was beyond all my expectations. I think cars lining up on Blaize and Bookter at 6:30 in the morning tells the tale. ... The official number was 433 Mopars scattered around the Depot District."

Mopar is the parts, service and customer care division of American automobile manufacturer Chrysler. The company first used the term in the 1920s, but muscle car enthusiasts use it to "brand" the company's Dodge and Plymouth vehicles from the late 1960s and early 1970s, such as the Dodge Charger and Challenger, and the Plymouth Barracuda and Roadrunner.

The event is hosted each year by Mopars on the Coast and the Big Easy Mopar Association.

Falgout said the club was immensely pleased with the turn-out last year, and has committed to keep bring the celebration to Bay St. Louis through at least 2026.

The 4th annual Mopar Day in the Bay is set for Thursday, Oct. 5.
